drive 6.5 to 7 hours to nawalgarh arranged by travel agency.

Royal Welcome on arrival at the Roop Niwas Kothi. Which lies just a kilometer from the town and is a fascinating blend of European and Rajput style of architecture. The Palace has lovely, spacious lawns, a billiard room and a swimming pool.

After lunch you will be taken to the stables where you will be introduced to the team for the safari. It will be followed by a briefing on Horse riding in India. Later Devendra Singh Ji will introduce each member to his horse and also advise them how to ride them. The guests then ride around the field tracks near the Palace to get accustomed to your horses. In case riders are not comfortable they can try another horse.

Nawalgarh is situated in the Shekhawati region of Rajasthan. Shekhawati comprises of districts of Jhunjhunu & Sikar. It is known for the painted houses or " Havelis " of its wealthy merchant class, the Marwaris. This region could be called the open-air art gallery of Rajasthan. The drive to Shekhawati is through picturesque village and farms.

Nawalgarh was founded in 1737 AD. by Thakur Nawal Singh, a warrior statesman, whose name is enshrined in history and folklore. The town exudes an old world charm and the colourful bazaar has the largest number of painted Havelies in Shekhawati.
